

Rally Points

The Academic Center

Upon hearing the evacuation alarm in the Academic Center, all students, faculty and staff should immediately walk, not run, to the nearest exit. Students in a class should follow the direction of the instructor. The rally point for the Academic Center is in the plaza in front of Gateway Center and the Maple. All students, faculty and staff should proceed to this area for a head count. Instructors should notify the Fire Department or Campus Safety and Security of anyone that did not evacuate the building, and the location of disabled personnel that need assistance with evacuating.

Cedar Hall North

Residents and guests of Cedar Hall North should evacuate the building immediately upon hearing a fire alarm. The rally point for Cedar Hall North is the far south corner of Parking Lot A near the Panthers' Practice Fields. A head count will be conducted by Residential Life personnel, and the Fire Department or Campus Safety & Security should be notified of any people, including disabled personnel, still in the building.

Cedar Hall South

Residents and guests of Cedar Hall South should evacuate the building immediately upon hearing a fire alarm. The rally point for Cedar Hall South is the far south corner of Parking Lot A near the Panthers' Practice Fields. A head count will be conducted by Residential Life personnel, and the Fire Department or Campus Safety & Security should be notified of any people, including disabled personnel, still in the building.

Student Center (Wildcat Center)

Students and guests in the Student Center should evacuate the building immediately upon hearing the fire alarm. The rally point for all occupants of the Student Center is The Quad – the courtyard in between CHN and CHS. A head count will be performed by Sports and Recreation Staff and the Fire Department or Campus Safety & Security should be notified of any people, including disabled personnel, still in the building.

Gateway Center

Upon hearing the fire alarm in Gateway Center, all students, faculty and staff should immediately walk, not run, to the nearest exit. Students in class should follow the direction of the instructor. The rally point for Gateway Center low rise occupants as designated by the building management is in the Academic Center courtyard. All students, faculty and staff should proceed to this area for a head count. Instructors should notify the Fire Department or Campus Safety and Security of anyone that did not evacuate the building, and the location of disabled personnel that need assistance with evacuating.

Gateway Village

Upon hearing the fire alarm in Gateway Village, all students, faculty and staff should immediately exit the building and walk, not run, to the nearest exit. The rally point for Gateway Village is in the paved parking lot behind the 900 building fronting Irwin Ave. A head count should be performed by office personnel and the Fire Department or Campus Safety and Security should be notified of anyone that did not evacuate the building, and the location of disabled personnel that need assistance with evacuating.

The Maple

Upon hearing the fire alarm in the Maple, all residents and guests should immediately exit the building and walk, not run, to the nearest exit. The rally point for the Maple is in the courtyard patio in front of the Gateway Center. A head count should be performed by Residential Life personnel and the Fire Department or Campus Safety and Security should be notified of anyone that did not evacuate the building, and the location of disabled personnel that need assistance with evacuating.