Class of 2024

GRADUATE STUDIES

Providence, Rhode Island

May 4, 2024

Dear Class of 2024,

Today we are here to celebrate you — the members of the Johnson & Wales University graduating Class of 2024. This day marks the culmination of your journey defined by hard work, perseverance, and the belief in the transformative power of education. Congratulations on arriving at this moment!

Earning your college degree is an extraordinary achievement. As you prepare to cross the stage today, take a moment to think about all the people who helped you get here — your family and friends, your professors, advisors, coaches, mentors and staff. We are so proud of what you have accomplished.

The education and opportunities you have experienced while attending Johnson & Wales University have prepared you for what lies ahead. I know that you will embrace the future with the same persistence and determination you have shown throughout your years at JWU.

You will always have a home here. You are Wildcats for life. As an alumna myself, I am humbled to be a part of this remarkable alumni family. Like so many who have come before you at JWU, I know you will find fulfilment and success in your professional pursuits.

Now it is time to make your mark on the world. As you begin the next chapter in your personal and professional journey, may you follow your passion, find your purpose, and build a life that allows you not only to make a living but a difference.

On behalf of the entire university community, we wish you all the best for a bright future.

With warm regards,

JOHNSON & WALES UNIVERSITY: FUTURE LEADERS START HERE

Founded in 1914, Johnson & Wales University is a private, nonprofit, accredited institution with more than 8,000 graduate, undergraduate and online students at its campuses in Providence, Rhode Island and Charlotte, North Carolina. An innovative educational leader, the university offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs in arts and sciences, business, engineering, food innovation, hospitality, nutrition, and health and wellness. It also offers undergraduate programs in culinary arts, dietetics and design. JWU's unique model provides students with the personalized attention, academic expertise and industry connections that inspire professional success and personal growth. The time students spend at JWU is nothing short of transformative, as demonstrated by career outcomes, expected earnings and economic mobility rankings. The university's impact is global, with alumni in 128 countries pursuing careers worldwide. For more information, visit jwu.edu.

A COMPREHENSIVE UNIVERSITY

As an innovative and comprehensive university, Johnson & Wales University is committed to preparing students for careers and leadership in diverse industries. The university is invested in supporting every student's journey to fulfilling their academic potential, professional ambitions and personal aspirations.

Johnson & Wales continues to be a prominent global leader in the academic sphere, with a robust international and national student population. Today we are honored to host international students representing 57 countries, an integral part of our university's dynamic community. High-impact, engaged learning is at the heart of what the university does, including the opportunities we offer for students to participate in the 60 study abroad and exchange programs in 34 destinations worldwide.

The university is powered by a belief that every student deserves a high-quality education that can prepare them for success in a meaningful career. The university prioritizes a teacher-scholar model and celebrates scholarship and research. The community nurtures an academic culture that embodies discovery, creativity and intellectual curiosity. Our faculty strive to instill in our graduates adaptable thinking, professionalism and the quest for lifelong learning. It is in this spirit that we send our 2024 graduates into the world, eager to see how they will make their own indelible marks on industry, academia, government and community.

Student Speaker

MAHALIA SYLVIA FRANCIS '24 MBA

Born and raised in Jamaica with a passion for baking and science, Mahalia Francis became an international student at JWU's Providence Campus in 2016. She graduated cum laude with an associate degree in Baking & Pastry Arts in 2018 and a bachelor's degree in Dietetics and Applied Nutrition in 2021. She completed a year-long dietetic internship with Wellness Workdays where she concentrated on worksite wellness and health promotion to gain her pending Registered Dietitian (RD) credential. She then enrolled in JWU's MBA program, from which she is graduating today. She has achieved Dean's List status throughout her entire academic career at JWU.

Francis worked as a student assistant in the Off-Campus Student Services office for over five years, mentoring and guiding several first-year students throughout their college experience. She also led a campus ministry during her time as an undergraduate. For these efforts, Student Engagement named her its Outstanding Student Employee in 2021. She currently works as a dietary supervisor for a healthcare facility in Massachusetts.

Alumni Speaker

MAYANK MISRA '00 MBA

*Vice President of Commercial Strategy, Analytics and Business Operations
Soleo Therapeutics*

Mayank Misra has over 20 years of biopharma experience in digital, real-world data analytics, and commercial operations roles spanning research, medical and commercial functions. He has held senior executive leadership positions at Takeda Oncology, Melinta Therapeutics and Pfizer.

He is a transformational leader and innovator passionate about amplifying patient impact and business outcomes through cutting-edge data and analytics products, digital accelerators, and applied intelligence solutions.

His expertise in pharmaceutical analytics includes new product planning and forecasting, field force design, incentive compensation, patient support hub analytics, payer access, corporate accounts strategy, channel and marketing mix optimization, omnichannel marketing, and digital campaign measurement.

Misra specializes in digital solutions using artificial intelligence (AI), machine learning (ML), and healthcare/patient data. He has successfully led 18 pharmaceutical product launches and championed biotech business development due diligence, co-commercialization alliances, and organization-wide transformation initiatives.

Academic accomplishments include an M.S. degree in data sciences and machine learning from Columbia University, an MBA degree from Johnson & Wales University, and a B.S. degree from Kanpur University. He also serves on JWU's College of Health & Wellness Advisory Council.

Honorary Degree Recipient

DALE JEAN VENTURINI

Doctor of Business Administration

Dale Jean Venturini is a highly accomplished and dedicated leader of the hospitality industry in Rhode Island. Her advocacy and community engagement have left a lasting impact on businesses and individuals alike.

Venturini served as the president and CEO of the Rhode Island Hospitality Association (RIHA) for an impressive 35 years, retiring in February 2024. Appointed to this esteemed position by influential figures within the Rhode Island hospitality scene, she demonstrated exemplary leadership in steering RIHA's mission. Additionally, she oversaw the Rhode Island Hospitality Education Foundation (RIHEF) and its Hospitality Training Academy, ensuring the growth and success of industry professionals.

As the head of RIHA, Venturini spearheaded its lobbying efforts, advocating for policies that support the interests of the hospitality industry at both state and national levels. She devised and advanced the industry's agenda and fostered a conducive business environment. She has also been a catalyst for enhancing educational and training programs within Rhode Island's hospitality sector. Under her guidance, RIHEF continually improved its offerings to meet the evolving needs of industry professionals, driving growth and excellence in the field.

Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, Venturini played a pivotal role in guiding the hospitality industry through unprecedented challenges. Her proactive initiatives, including providing financial relief for displaced employees and implementing safety protocols, have been instrumental in sustaining businesses during challenging times.

Venturini's deep engagement in the community extends beyond her professional responsibilities. She actively serves on various boards and commissions related to hospitality, healthcare, education and economic development, demonstrating a commitment to making a positive impact beyond the business realm.

Outside of her professional endeavors, she enjoys a well-rounded lifestyle, with interests ranging from reading and golf to dining and theater. These pursuits reflect her passion for both work and leisure activities, contributing to her balanced approach to life.

After the ceremony, guests may join the graduates outside under the marquee of the Amica Mutual Pavilion. For your convenience, the commencement ceremony is being professionally photographed by Grad Images®. For information on ordering photos, please contact Grad Images® at 800-261-2576 or visit gradimages.com. The ceremony is also being streamed live at <https://commencement.jwu.edu/providence.html>.

Symbols of Commencement

UNIVERSITY SEAL

The university seal represents Johnson & Wales University's roots. The year at the top of the shield, 1914, is the year that the university was founded by Gertrude I. Johnson and Mary T. Wales. The dragon of St. George on the upper portion of the crest honors the Wales family, while the lower portion of the crest bears the cross of St. John and honors the Johnson family.

MACE

The Johnson & Wales University mace symbolizes the ideals and values of JWU's educational philosophy. Cast of silver and bronze, it is engraved with the names of our chancellors, past and present. Our campus locations are engraved on the golden bands. On ceremonial occasions, university officials carry the mace to display the unity and continuity of Johnson & Wales University.

The mace dates to medieval times, when it was first used as a weapon. Forbidden to use swords, medieval European bishops were allowed to enter battle with a mace — typically an iron or steel club designed to split armor. By the 16th century, the mace had become a symbol of authority that colleges and universities began using ceremonially. That tradition continues today, and the mace is carried as part of formal academic occasions at colleges and universities across the globe.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of wearing distinctive dress for academic reasons dates back to the Middle Ages. Today, academic costumes are usually worn in the United States by people participating in academic ceremonies.

The faculty and platform party wear regalia representative of the degrees they possess.

The academic dress worn by graduates at today's ceremony are 100% certified recycled polyester fabric that can be recycled and made into future gown products, helping to divert from landfills. Each recycled gown saves 29 plastic bottles from landfills, reduces carbon dioxide emissions by 1.5 pounds, and saves half a gallon of gasoline.

HOODS

Originating from the cowls of monastic orders, the hoods are the most distinctive part of the academic regalia. Their shape and size indicate the level of degree attained, and the colors reflect both the academic field as well as the institution that granted the degree.

The fields of study most frequently represented in academic processions are as follows:

FIELD OF STUDY	COLOR
Arts	Gold
Business, Commerce, Fine Arts, Science	Drab
Education	Light Blue
Occupational Therapy	Slate Blue
Physician Assistant Studies	Green

CAPS

There is more variety in the shape and color of academic hats than in any other area. Master's and doctoral degree recipients wear the tassel on the left throughout the ceremony, and the doctoral soft-cap often features a gold tassel.
