COLLEGE OF CULINARY ARTS

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING & DESIGN

Providence, Rhode Island
May 23, 2015

Dear Graduates of the Class of 2015,

Congratulations on your graduation from Johnson & Wales University, a proud accomplishment for you and all who have supported your efforts.

You leave here today with knowledge, industry-specific skills, leadership qualities and career readiness that will serve you well in your life endeavors.

Your time at the university has been remarkable. You've celebrated with classmates who've won prestigious competitions and awards, and brought excitement to campus with athletic achievements and an invigorated school spirit. You've enjoyed new facilities on both the Downcity and Harborside campuses and celebrated long-held traditions. Academically, you have been part of the rise of national and international acclaim for Johnson & Wales University. Your contributions honor those who came before you and have done much to strengthen our university.

As president of this wonderful university, I have a deep affinity for what you have achieved and celebrate your successes with you. I've enjoyed the journey we've taken together and look forward to hearing of your future successes.

Whether you will be staying in New England or pursuing graduate studies and careers across the country or around the globe, know that the Providence Campus is always home to you, a place where you can reconnect with friends and nourish your interests. I encourage you to take advantage of a network of more than 97,000 alumni from 161 countries and to seek out our alumni chapters and events. We welcome your returning to campus and sharing your stories with our next generation of leaders.

The entire university community shares my pride in what you've done for JWU. You have our gratitude and our best wishes for what lies ahead.

Sincerely,

Mim L. Runey, LP.D.
Providence Campus President,
Chief Operating Officer

Student Speaker

DANIEL ALEXANDER DAVILA '15

Bachelor's Degree Culinary Nutrition

Daniel Davila is dedicated to improving himself and those around him, following the sage advice to “leave the world a better place than you found it.” After earning his associate degree in Culinary Arts from Johnson & Wales University in 2013, he continued his studies and is graduating today with a bachelor's degree in Culinary Nutrition with concentrations in Culinary Food Science and Biological Sciences.

While pursuing his studies, Davila worked full-time jobs as a line cook for several local restaurants including Gracie's, Nick's on Broadway and The Salted Slate. When not in class or working, he was very involved in extracurricular activities including serving as president of the Food Science Club where he arranged demonstrations, field trips and volunteer work for club members. His crowning accomplishment was leading a team of five JWU students to a second-place finish in the national Ocean Spray Student Product Development Competition with a Cranola Crunch Bar concept.

Alumni Speaker

DEBRA HILL '77

*Vice President Publishing Technology
Gatehouse Media*

A 1977 graduate with a bachelor's degree in Data Systems Management, Debra Hill began her professional career in retail management. Energetic and looking to optimize her career opportunities, she enrolled in an introduction to computer class and found her calling. The class was the first step in a diverse and distinguished career ranging from finance to manufacturing and finally the national media.

Her accomplished career includes 10 years as the financial systems manager for the Millipore Corporation, 18 years as vice president of publishing technology for AH Belo Corporation and her current position as vice president of publishing technology for the Providence Journal.

Honorary Degree Recipient

MARK R. LADNER '90

Doctor of Culinary Arts

Chef Mark Ladner '90 began his culinary education in Cambridge, Mass., at independently owned and operated pizza counters, before formalizing his training at Johnson & Wales University's Providence Campus. After graduating from JWU, he moved to New York and worked with several well-regarded restaurateurs, before meeting Mario Batali and Joe Bastianich, and opening Babbo Ristaronte as sous chef in 1998. Since then, Ladner opened Lupa Osteria Romana in 1999, Otto Enoteca Pizzeria in 2002, and Del Posto in 2005, all as chef/partner. He co-authored the 2010 cookbook "Molto Gusto" with Mario Batali.

Del Posto received a four-star New York Times rating in 2010, and has been more recently honored with one Michelin star, a Relais & Chateaux distinction, a grand award from Wine Spectator magazine and a five-diamond award from AAA.

Ladner has received many honors, including being named a grand chef by Relais & Chateaux, one of only 160 in the world. For the past four years, he has been nominated as the James Beard Best Chef NYC, and for the past two years has been a finalist in the category.

Ladner cooks a sensible interpretation of modern, regional, Italian-American cuisine or "Cucina New Yorkese." He always uses responsibly raised and locally sourced products, hence the name Del Posto, meaning "of the place."

This past fall, he launched a pop-up truck called Pasta Flyer, described as serving "nourishing, gluten-free Italian pasta bowls: the warmth of Grandma's cooking in a family-friendly, ready-to-eat ramen shop setting." He spent three years perfecting his patent-pending pasta formulation in response to the growing prevalence of gluten intolerance.

In March Ladner represented JWU as he partnered with Harvard Professor Michael Brenner to lecture at Brown University about "The Mathematics of Cooking." From making fresh ricotta to blowing up marshmallows, the pair demonstrated the scientific principles behind common cooking techniques.

Ladner is the opening chef at the Expo Milano 2015, which features the theme of nutrition and sustainability in feeding the planet. He is a culinary board member of the Museum of Food and Drink in New York City and The Center for Discovery in Monticello, N.Y.

Honorary Degree Recipient

ANGELA LEIGH RAYNOR

Doctor of Business Administration in Food Service Entrepreneurship

Angela Leigh Raynor is co-proprietor with her husband and executive chef Seth of two seasonal restaurants in Nantucket's historic downtown: the Boarding House and The Pearl. She graduated from the New England Culinary Institute in Montpelier, Vt., in 1988, where she met her husband. She was selected to spend six months in Provence working at Le Petite Prince.

In 1991 the Raynors opened the Boarding House, which offers authentic farm-to-table cuisine served with a focus on old school hospitality. It holds Wine Spectator magazine's Award of Excellence for its unique collection of wines, champagnes and rosés.

In 1999, the pair opened The Pearl, which focuses on current coastal cuisine including seasonal shellfish and seafood, produce from island farmers and heritage meats. It was awarded Best Seafood Restaurant in New England honors from New England Travel & Life magazine. Travel & Leisure magazine gave The Pearl's salt and pepper wok fried lobster a World's Best Award.

Career highlights include being invited to cook at the James Beard House and La Paulee in Beaune, France in the same week in 2011. This past year, she and her husband also participated in the James Beard Foundation Chef Tour in Cambridge.

Raynor has been on the board of directors for Dreamland Foundation for six years. She has also been on the boards of Nantucket New School, Nantucket AIDS Network and Children's House of Nantucket. She has been a professional member of the James Beard Foundation for the past 15 years. She's also been a guest chef for the Anthony Spinazzola Foundation, Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Massachusetts' Big Night, Lovelane Equine Therapy's HoeDown, and Island Creek Oysters Foundation's Oyster Fest.

The Raynors live in Nantucket and have two children, Nathaniel and Jacqueline.

Honorary Degree Recipient

SETH CARTER RAYNOR

Doctor of Culinary Arts

Seth Carter Raynor is executive chef and co-proprietor with his wife Angela of two seasonal restaurants in Nantucket's historic downtown: the Boarding House and The Pearl.

Raynor graduated from the New England Culinary Institute in Montpelier, Vt., in 1989, where he met his wife, Angela. As a young chef, he worked with Jean-Louis Palladin, Eric Ripert, Daniel Boulud, Michel Ricard, Ken Oringer, Ming Tsai and many others.

In 1991 the Raynors opened the Boarding House, which offers authentic farm-to-table cuisine served with a focus on old school hospitality. It holds Wine Spectator magazine's Award of Excellence for its unique collection of wines, champagnes and rosés.

Fifteen years ago, Raynor traveled to Southeast Asia and Japan for six weeks of culinary inspiration. The food, people and culture helped shape him into the chef he is today and changed his outlook on life in and out of the kitchen. The culmination of this is the Asian-inspired menu at Raynor's second restaurant, The Pearl. Opened in 1999, The Pearl focuses on current coastal cuisine showcasing seasonal shellfish and seafood, produce from island farmers and heritage meats. It was awarded Best Seafood Restaurant in New England honors from New England Travel & Life magazine. Travel & Leisure magazine gave The Pearl's salt and pepper wok fried lobster a World's Best Award.

In October 2011, Raynor was a guest chef for a dinner hosted by the James Beard Foundation. He was also an industry event guest chef for James Beard Foundation's Taste of America Boston 2014.

Raynor is an advisor for Sustainable Nantucket and a surf judge for Nantucket Ozone Surf. He has been a professional member of the James Beard Foundation for 15 years and of the Chefs Collaborative for three years. He has been a guest chef with the Anthony Spinazzola Foundation for 20 years, and with Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Massachusetts' Big Night for nine years. He was featured on the television series "Great Chefs of the East" in 1992. He is the 2003 winner of the Cointreau Remy-Amerique-FoodArts Paris Contest.

The Raynors live in Nantucket and have two children, Nathaniel and Jacqueline.

Deans Angela Renaud, Ed.D.; Peter Lehmueller, Ed.D.; Frank Tweedie '98 M.S.; and the faculty of John Hazen White College of Arts & Sciences, the College of Culinary Arts, and the School of Engineering & Design proudly present their Classes of 2015.

A GLOBAL UNIVERSITY

At Johnson & Wales, we've always been committed to embracing diversity and an international perspective to help foster a richly inclusive educational experience for all of our students.

As such, the university has a long and proud history of welcoming students from across the globe. In fact, our more than 8,800 international alumni — representing 161 countries — are a testament to our unique approach to experiential education, and to our welcoming and supportive culture.

Today, we're honored to host the more than 1,600 international students from nearly 100 countries who are such an integral part of our university community, making Johnson & Wales among the top 100 colleges and universities in the United States for international student enrollment.

We're equally committed to enriching and expanding opportunities for global learning, and to enhancing opportunities for global citizenship. In addition to the 35 countries in which our students completed internships last year, the number of students who took advantage of our 40 study abroad programs across six continents placed JWU among the top 25 master's level institutions in the United States for number of students who studied abroad.

To all of our international graduates celebrating with us today, we thank you for your significant contributions to the JWU experience, and we wish you much success in all your personal and professional endeavors.

Diplomas will be awarded upon completion of all university requirements.

The appearance of a student's name in this program does not necessarily indicate that all graduation requirements have been met. Graduate names are based on records posted on the university's Student Academic Services website, with spellings verified by students and submitted for publication as of April 17, 2015.
Alpha Beta Kappa designations were determined as of April 17, 2015.

For the safety of everyone in attendance and to comply with local fire department regulations, guests are requested to remain in their seats during the program. Guests will not be allowed onto the arena floor or in the exhibition area where graduates enter and exit the arena. Ushers are stationed at the foot of each aisle should you need assistance.

After the ceremony, guests may join the graduates in either the front lobby or the front entrance area outside the Dunkin' Donuts Center. Once the academic recessional has ended, graduates and guests may return to the arena to use the stage as a backdrop for photographs.

For your convenience, today's commencement ceremony is being professionally photographed (and videotaped) by Grad Images®. For information on ordering photos (or a DVD of the ceremony), please contact Grad Images® at 800-261-2576 or online at www.gradimages.com. Grad Images® has agreed to provide a free 5x7 of the graduate's choice to each graduate that provides his/her email and mailing address to Grad Images®. Today's ceremony is also being streamed live at <http://gnac.ezstream.com/play/index.cfm?ptype=sl&id=481F31D80B&Org=gnac&CFID=2010366&CFTOKEN=43685845>

Johnson & Wales University has also hired professional photographers/videographers to capture images of this graduation for use in educational and promotional materials. By attending the Event, you are consenting to the collection and use of your image, in photo, video or streaming formats, in all media and means, for educational or commercial purposes.

If you have any concerns about your image being used for these purposes, please contact a university commencement staff member or a Johnson & Wales University Campus Safety & Security Officer.

Symbols of Commencement

ACADEMIC DRESS

The tradition of wearing distinctive dress for academic reasons dates back to the Middle Ages. Today, academic costumes are usually worn in the United States by people participating in academic ceremonies. Bachelor's degree recipients wear academic hoods representing their higher level of education. The hood worn at JWU is black with blue, white and golden-yellow trim to signify the school colors.

The faculty and platform party wear regalia representative of the degrees they possess. The honorary degree recipients will wear the academic costume and hood appropriate for the degree being conferred upon them.

HONORS GOLD STOLE

Students graduating from the university's Honors Program have completed an enhanced undergraduate curriculum and have maintained at least a 3.40 cumulative GPA. They wear an embroidered gold stole to recognize their exemplary academic achievement.

GOLD CORD

Students graduating cum laude or above, as of Winter Term 2014, are designated by gold cords.

BLUE & WHITE CORD

Students who have participated in co-curricular activities designated by university parameters are distinguished by a blue and white cord.

HONORS

Eligible degree candidates receive cum laude, magna cum laude and summa cum laude recognition according to their academic program average. Students with the designated graduating GPA are eligible to receive Latin honors as follows: cum laude, 3.40–3.60; magna cum laude, 3.61–3.80; and summa cum laude, 3.81–4.00.

Throughout their studies outstanding students earn additional accolades at Commencement which are reflected by the numerical designations in this program including

1. Alpha Beta Kappa Honor Society

Alpha Beta Kappa is a national honor society that recognizes superior student academic achievement, character and leadership. Students must have a minimum 3.90 cumulative GPA to be invited to join the honor society.

2. University Honors Scholar

The University Honors Scholar designation is awarded to students who complete major-specific Honors course requirements at the bachelor's level as well as an Honors Thesis while maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.4 or higher. This is one of Johnson & Wales University's highest undergraduate awards.

3. Honors Scholar

The Honors Scholar designation is awarded to students who complete Honors program requirements at the bachelor's level while maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.40 or higher.

4. Honors Associate

The Honors Associate designation is awarded to students who complete major-specific Honors course requirements at the associate's level while maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.40 or higher.

5. Post-May Graduate

Post-May graduates are students completing their academic requirements through the fall 2014 term.
