

CREATE A JOURNAL ENTRY

As part of your course, the instructor may require you to create journal entries in order to reflect on a class, topic, or experience.

Instructions

1. Navigate to the journal assigned in the content area folder.

 Week 4 Journal: Anticipatory Socialization
Reflect on your experiences with the process of anticipatory socialization. This could mean being a first-time parent, going to college, going into the workforce, etc. What you learned this week, in your journal post, in about 200-300 words please.

2. Click on Create Journal Entry.

3. Title and write your entry.
